DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite. They appear to be a nearly literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). Claim 1 recites the broad recitation "textile machine" and also recites "like a weaving or knitting machine" which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation. Also in claim 1, the multiple alternative recitations “and/or” make the claims indefinite and unclear.

Similar indefinite alternative recitations are found in claims 4, 5 and 10-12.

Claim 2 is indefinite since it recites the broad recitation “yarn feeding device” and the narrower recitation “preferably containing an event signal driver”.

Claim 3 is indefinite since it recites the broad recitation “yarn feeding device” and the narrower recitation “preferably containing at least one common event signal driver”.

Re claim 11, the recitation “and the like” is indefinite as to the elements being claimed.

Re claim 13, the recitation “and in some cases” is indefinite as to the scenarios being claimed.

Re claims 14 and 15, the phrase “e.g.” renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Also in claim 15, the recitation “preferably on a continuous time basis” is indefinite as to the metes and bounds of the claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 12 and 14 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Claims 2-11, 13 and 15 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
